Published by the City of Knoxville's Office of Neighborhoods to report news important to Knoxville's residential neighborhoods. News & calendar deadline: 5 p.m. Mondays.

1. Lindbergh Forest Forms a New Neighborhood Association

Residents in the Lindbergh Forest neighborhood in South Knoxville have formed a new neighborhood association, formalized their neighborhood watch, and elected officers.

In addition, the boundaries have been expanded beyond those adopted by a previous neighborhood group in the area. In the past, residents defined the neighborhood boundaries as the triangle formed by Chapman Highway, East Moody Avenue, and the portion of Woodlawn Pike north of Moody.

This included the Lindbergh Forest Historic District, which is on the National Register of Historic Places. (See <http://www.knoxmpc.org/historic/nr/natreg.htm>.)

Under the new Lindbergh Forest Neighborhood Association, the boundaries take in the triangle as well as Tipton Avenue and adjacent streets around Dogwood Elementary School.

The new officers are Kelley DeLuca, president; Amanda Morse, vice president; Heather Ream, secretary; Stephanie Greene, treasurer; and Jewell Minnich, neighborhood watch coordinator.

The group is working to install neighborhood watch signs and a neighborhood entrance sign, is planning holiday socials for Halloween and Christmas, and is hoping to get approval for a "Paint the Pavement" project as well.

Lindbergh Forest meets at 6:30 p.m. on the third Wednesday of each month at Graystone Presbyterian Church, 139 Woodlawn Pike. For more information, contact Kelley DeLuca at 660-4728 or kellydeluca@gmail.com.

2. Edgewood Park Elects Pallesen as President

Peter Pallesen has been elected president of Edgewood Park Neighborhood Association, succeeding Maggie Davidson, who agreed to become vice president.

Julie Taylor was elected secretary, replacing Melissa Brenneman, and Carol Zimmerman remains the treasurer by group consent.

The Edgewood Park neighborhood is located north of Washington Pike, between Broadway and Whittle Springs. The group meets at 7 p.m. on the third Tuesday of each month at the Larry Cox Senior Center, 3109 Ocoee Trail.

3. Neighborhood Directory Updated: Please Check Your Listing

The Office of Neighborhoods has updated the Knoxville Neighborhood Directory, which lists 121 resident-led, resident-controlled neighborhood organizations inside Knoxville city limits, including watch groups, tenant organizations, neighborhood associations and traditional HOA's (home owner associations).

Please check your group's listing. If the information is not correct, let us know. If your group is not listed, or if you know of a group that should be included, please contact Debbie Sharp at 215-4382.

A listing in this directory ensures that your neighborhood organization can be contacted as necessary. The Office of Neighborhoods often gets requests asking if a particular neighborhood has a formal organization. These requests come from neighborhood residents (potential new members for your organization), city departments, other neighborhoods, developers, businesses, Metropolitan Planning Commission, members of City Council, and others.

In addition to listing contact information for each group, the directory lists all of the groups by City Council district and by MPC planning sector, and also separately lists organizations that are affiliated with neighborhood groups in some way.

If you are unable to access <http://www.knoxvilletn.gov/neighborhooddirectory>, call Debbie Sharp at 215-4382 to obtain a hard copy. Alternative formats are available upon request for persons with a disability.

4. Testify on Blighted Properties at Meeting This Week

Twenty properties are on the agenda for the City's next Public Officer Hearing at 9:30 a.m. Friday, July 31, in the small assembly room at the City County Building.

The Public Officer --- David Brace, director of the Public Service Department --- will hear testimony on buildings that inspectors contend are in violation of the city's building codes. Testimony can also be made by the property owners and other stakeholders, such as lien holders,

The Public Officer then decides whether to issue an order requiring that the violations be addressed in a certain period of time. Failure by the owner to cure the problem may result in the boarding or demolition of a structure, or the cleanup of a dirty or overgrown lot, with costs billed to the owner. A property owner may appeal the Public Officer's decision to the Better Building Board and, ultimately, to Chancery Court.

The properties to be heard for repair/demolition orders are: 2021 Brown Avenue, 2827 Carson Avenue (including accessory structure), 2024 Fair Drive (including accessory structure), 1704 Jourolman Avenue (including accessory structure), 1708 Jourolman Avenue, 2115 Linden Avenue, 2441 Linden Avenue (including accessory structure), 1211 Louisiana Avenue, 1118 Maryland Avenue, 2243 McClung Avenue (including accessory structure), 1306 Memory Lane, 338 East Moody Avenue, 2945 Orchard Avenue (Accessory structure only), 1911 Riverside Drive, 2715 Selma Avenue, 4601 Sims Road, 2315 Sutherland Avenue (Commercial), and 2308 Washington Avenue.

4530 Holston Drive (all lots) and 3212 Linden Avenue will be considered for confirmation of emergency repair/demolition order.

If any of these properties are in your neighborhood, then you or a representative of your organization may wish to attend the meeting to submit testimony about the impact of the property on the neighborhood.

In addition, the Neighborhood Codes Enforcement office is requesting formal approval for the emergency boarding of these properties: 805 Beaman Lake Road, 2021 Brown Avenue, 2827 Carson Avenue, 220 Connex Street, 2024 Fair Drive, 2814 East Fifth Avenue, 4020 Gap Road, 434 Hiawassee Avenue, 1708 Jourolman Avenue, 2115 Linden Avenue, 2441 Linden Avenue, 2822 Linden Avenue, 3212 Linden Avenue, 2243 McClung Avenue, 106 McDaniel Avenue, 1306 Memory Lane, 1316 Minnesota Avenue, 338 East Moody Avenue, 2945 Orchard Avenue, 4848 Scheel Road, 2715 Selma Avenue, and 2308 Washington Avenue.

The full July 31 agenda, with details on each property, can be found at http://www.knoxvilletn.gov/UserFiles/Servers/Server\_109478/File/Boards/betterbuilding/agenda\_poh.pdf.

Meanwhile, the Better Building Board will meet at 3:30 p.m. Thursday, July 30, to confirm an emergency repair order that the board approved in mid-June for the property at 314/322 Church Avenue --- the Pryor Brown Garage. The order was issued on an emergency basis following a collapse of part of the roof at the garage. Such emergency orders, whether issued by the BBB or the Public Officer, are always formally confirmed at the next formal hearing date.

Note: An earlier version of this article stated incorrectly that an emergency repair The BBB will also consider appeals from residents at 616 Goldfinch Avenue and 4310 High School Road for orders regarding inoperable vehicles.
