Published by the City of Knoxville's Office of Neighborhoods to report news important to Knoxville's residential neighborhoods. News & calendar deadline: 5 p.m. Mondays.

1. What Makes a Great Neighborhood?

The Office of Neighborhoods and the Knox County Health Department this Thursday are partnering to host a community workshop on what makes a great and healthy neighborhood.

In addition, the workshop will show how community members can work with available resources to create places of beauty and pride in their own neighborhoods.

During the workshop, residents will learn about strategies to work on these efforts and brainstorm together to come up with innovative ideas of their own. Presenters will include Sarah Bounse, Public Health Educator from the Knox County Health Department, and Susan Shin, AmeriCorps member at the City of Knoxville's Office of Neighborhoods.

The workshop is open to everyone and will be held Thursday, Nov. 19, from 6 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. at the Cansler YMCA, 616 Jessamine Street. Light refreshments will be provided. Please RSVP by contacting Susan Shin at 215-3077 or sshin@knoxvilletn.gov.

2. City Announces Schedules for Thanksgiving Week

This newsletter will not be published next week. Our next issue will be produced on Tuesday, Dec. 1. The deadline for that issue is 5 p.m. on Nov. 30.

Knoxville City Council will meet as scheduled on Tuesday, Nov. 24. City offices will be closed on Thursday and Friday, Nov. 26-27, in observance of the Thanksgiving holiday.

Household garbage and recycling pickups will be on regular schedule from Monday through Wednesday next week. Waste Connections, the city's household garbage and recycling hauler, will be closed on Thanksgiving. It will run Thanksgiving Day pickups on Friday, Nov. 27, and Friday pickups on Saturday, Nov. 28. Be sure to have garbage and recycling containers out for pickup before 7 a.m. on your pickup day.

The downtown garbage and recycling collection will run on regular schedule during Thanksgiving week. The city's recycling centers will be open, but the Goodwill attendant will not be available for assistance or to accept household goods donations on Nov. 26.

The city's Solid Waste Management Facility located at 1033 Elm Street will be closed Thursday through Saturday, Nov. 26-28.

3. Inskip Community Prepares Thanksgiving Buckets

For the second year, Inskip Community Association is gathering items for Thanksgiving Buckets for needy families at Inskip Elementary School.

Contributions of turkeys, dressing, canned goods, desserts, and similar items are being collected at the school during school hours up until 3:30 p.m. both Thursday and Friday, November 19 and 20.

Inskip Community members will meet Thursday evening, Nov. 19, at Inskip Baptist Church, 4810 Rowan Road, to assemble contributions made at the school and from the congregation. This will serve as Inskip Community Association's monthly meeting, so they will not meet on Nov. 24.

Contact Betty Jo Mahan at inskipneighborhood@gmail.com or 679-2748.

4. Two Groups to Light Christmas Trees on Nov. 29

Two neighborhood groups in West Knoxville will hold Christmas tree lighting events on the last Sunday evening of November.

The Timbercrest Neighborhood Association will hold its second annual Christmas Party and Tree Lighting at 5 p.m. at the corner of Timber Pass and Timbercrest Trail. There will be music, cookies and hot chocolate. Lights will be turned on at 6 p.m. Over 70 neighbors attended this event last year. For more, contact Jen Leadbetter at ljleadbetter@yahoo.com or 292-3437.

At 6 p.m. on the same day, the Bearden Council will conduct its first ever Bearden tree lighting at the new Everly Brothers Park. Santa will attend, and the West High School chorus will perform. The park is located at the corner of Kingston Pike and North Forest Park Blvd. Friends will gather starting at 5:30 p.m.

Bearden Council --- which initiated the establishment of the park and is now engaged in raising funds for improvements --- is composed of business interests and representatives from neighborhood groups in the Forest Heights, Historic Sutherland Heights, Kingston Pike Sequoyah Hills, Lyons View, and Westwood neighborhoods. For more, contact Terry Faulkner at terryfaulk@bellsouth.net or 584-3659.

5. Volunteer for KEMA: Be An Emergency Contact in Your Neighborhood

The Knoxville-Knox Co. Emergency Management Agency (KEMA) and the Office of Neighborhoods (OON) are putting together a list of emergency contact persons in every residential neighborhood in the city.

Directly following a disaster or area-wide emergency, it is difficult if not impossible for agencies such as KEMA to get out and assess the whole city, neighborhood by neighborhood, before responding to the most urgent needs.

This is where you come in.

KEMA and OON are asking for each neighborhood or neighborhood organization in the city to provide one or more volunteer contacts (depending on the size of the neighborhood). Each contact must provide name, address, land line phone, and cell phone.

As a volunteer emergency neighborhood point person, you must be able and willing to drive or walk your neighborhood, street by street, to assess the level of emergency in your particular community. You can then communicate the status of your neighborhood using a special phone number or other emergency communications method.

Contact persons will meet annually to learn about potential emergencies, meet key emergency agency personnel, and learn about disaster assessment.

Please Note: This program is designed to identify which neighborhoods have been impacted by a major emergency or disaster. It will not replace calling 911, and it will not give special access or priority response from emergency personnel.

To volunteer on line, use this Google form. To sign up in person or to find out more, please contact the Office of Neighborhoods' Emergency Preparedness specialist, Rebecca McIver, at rmciver@knoxvilletn.gov or 215-3456.

6. City Seeks Applications for Neighborhood Achievement Awards

Neighborhood organizations across the City of Knoxville work hard to build community and enhance the quality of life in their neighborhoods, but their efforts often go unrecognized.

That has now changed.

The City of Knoxville's Office of Neighborhoods, for the second time, is now accepting applications for Neighborhood Achievement Awards. These awards will be presented at the Neighborhood Awards & Networking Luncheon to be held at the Knoxville Convention Center on Saturday, March 5, 2016.

Neighborhood groups are encouraged to apply for the awards, and it is also possible for an individual or another organization to nominate a neighborhood group. The deadline for submitting an application/nomination is Monday, January 11, 2016. Download the application/nomination form. Or call Debbie Sharp at 215-4382 to have a hard copy mailed to you.

Working with the Office of Neighborhoods, an awards committee will select winners from the pool of applications and nominations. The number and category of awards will be determined by the awards committee based on the applications.

Any resident-led, resident-controlled city neighborhood group recognized by the Office of Neighborhoods is eligible to apply or be nominated for this award. This includes neighborhood associations, homeowners associations, neighborhood watch groups and tenant/renter associations.

Whether your group is large or small, well established or brand new, your group is encouraged to apply. The awards will showcase accomplishments by neighborhood groups during calendar year 2014 and 2015. Example accomplishments include:

- Beautification and place-making projects, green spaces and community gardens, and other physical improvements to the neighborhood;
- Projects, events and activities that focus on connecting neighbors with one another, such as street fairs, potlucks, home tours, holiday celebrations, and neighbors helping neighbors;
- New or ongoing communication efforts such as newsletters, social media and phone tree networks; and
- Activities involved in launching, reviving, or strengthening a neighborhood group.

7. Thursday's Landlord Summit to Address Rental Housing

The City of Knoxville and other partners have scheduled a "Landlord Summit" to provide landlords with information on topics ranging from weatherization and lead testing to Section 8 rental assistance and affordable housing for veterans.

The free gathering will be held from 8 a.m. until 11 a.m. Thursday, Nov. 19, at O'Connor Senior Center, 611 Winona Street. A continental breakfast will be served at 7:30 a.m., and no registration is necessary. Mayor Madeline Rogero will make opening remarks.

Various presenters will discuss the new program to weatherize rental housing; how to get rental units tested, abated and certified as lead free; ways to house homeless veterans; details about participation in the Section 8 rental program and other social services; and need-to-know details about fair housing regulations and the state's landlord/tenant act.

In addition to the city, partners in this event include CAC (Knoxville - Knox County Community Action Committee), Legal Aid of East Tennessee, KCDC (Knoxville's public housing agency), the Tennessee Human Rights Commission, the Knoxville Knox County Homeless Coalition, and Volunteers of America.

For more, contact Michael Dunthorn at 215-3103 or mdunthorn@knoxvilletn.gov.

8. Join a Mob to Plant Daffodils This Weekend

Keep Knoxville Beautiful this weekend will host its largest ever "Beautification Mob" to plant over 60,000 daffodil bulbs on three I-275 exits near downtown.

A Keep Knoxville Beautiful “Beautification Mob” is an event where KKB staff and volunteers plant flowers, bushes, and trees to beautify a public space or prominent place quickly. This Beautification Mob will beautify the Baxter Avenue, Woodland Avenue, and Heiskell Avenue Exits off I-275, and will be KKB’s largest ever.

“This stretch of interstate leads right into downtown and is pretty drab; we want to brighten it with a blanket of daffodils for residents and visitors to enjoy for years to come,” says Keep Knoxville Beautiful Executive Director Patience Melnik. “The project this year is over 60 times larger than last year’s, so we are hoping to have a big turnout of over 100-150 volunteers.”

Volunteers should check in at the parking lot of the Helen Ross McNabb Center at 201 West Springdale Ave from 9:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. on Saturday, Nov. 21, and from noon to 5:00 p.m. on Sunday, Nov. 22. A shuttle will run to the exits all day, so volunteers can stay for an hour or for the day. Volunteers should wear sturdy shoes and clothes that can get dirty. Food and beverages will be provided by Bojangles, Food City, Krispy Kreme, Panera, and Earth Fare.

The project was made possible with grants from Lowe’s and from Waste Management.

Volunteers should visit www.keepknoxvillebeautiful.org to fill out the registration form. Contact Patience Melnik at patience@keepknoxvillebeautiful.org or 865-521-6957.

9. Tour de Lights Anchors Downtown Winter Festivities

The Holidays are upon us and this means there will be a plethora of fun, family friendly events happening throughout downtown Knoxville in the coming weeks, including the annual Tour de Lights.

The 9th annual bike parade will take place Friday, Dec. 18. Participants will gather in Market Square at 7 p.m. and then bike together through downtown, Fourth and Gill and Old North Knoxville. The event is free and open to everyone. The Mast General Store and Three Rivers Market will also provide hot cocoa and treats. Everyone is encouraged to dress up and decorate their bikes.

Other downtown winter festivities include open-air ice skating in Market Square, the lighting of the downtown Christmas tree on Friday evening, Nov. 27; the WIVK Christmas Parade on Dec. 4; lighting of the Christmas Tree at the Chilhowee Park bandstand on Dec. 11; and a free showing of “It’s a Wonderful Life” at the Tennessee Theatre on Dec. 13.

For more about these and other events, visit www.knoxvilletn.gov/christmas. On this same page, there is a link to download the “Knoxville Events App” so you can more easily keep up with events in Knoxville.

10. Neighborhood and Government Calendar

Include your neighborhood-related event or meeting in this space. Call 215-4382.
