1. Boright Neighborhood Watch to Meet April 16

Members of the Boright Area Neighborhood Watch will hold their quarterly meeting from 1-2 p.m. Saturday, April 16, at Boright Park, a city park located on Boright Drive one half block east of Whittle Springs Rd.

Meanwhile, Lola Alapo, who founded the group about two years ago, is stepping down as the neighborhood watch coordinator, and neighbor Caleb Wilson will take her place.

2. Election Commissioner to Speak at Alice Bell

Knox County Election Commissioner Andrew Roberto will speak on voter participation and concerns at the April meeting of the Alice Bell Spring Hill Neighborhood Association at 7 p.m. Monday April 18, at New Harvest Park Community Center, 4775 New Harvest Lane, just off Washington Pike east of Target.

3. Learn about Mapping Your Neighborhood Assets

One of the essential tasks for an active neighborhood organization is to take account of all of the assets located in or available to the neighborhood and the organization.

Assets can include physical amenities such as schools, houses of worship, stores, libraries, parks, greenways, and community gardens, as well as “people assets” such as the talents, experience, and connections of the neighbors themselves.

“Asset mapping” occurs when neighbors list their assets and pinpoint them on paper, either on a real map or in some sort of matrix, so that the assets can be visually displayed. Once this is done, it is easier for a community to visualize how to build on these assets for community improvement.

The community organization known as “5 Points Up” and the Knox County Health Department are working together on a model for mapping neighborhood assets. For this work, they are getting help from students at the UT Haslam College of Business and the UT Medical Center's Cancer Institute.

All have been involved in updating and improving the first edition of the Five Points Community Resource Guide. The results of that work will be presented at the Knox County Health Department Auditorium, 140 Dameron Avenue, on Tuesday, April 19, from 4:15 to 5 p.m. Refreshments will be provided.

The students will talk about what they found as they combed East Knoxville to identify assets, and they take questions. Also, Dr. Keith Gray will speak briefly on why the Cancer Institute was interested in this project.

The public is invited, but please RSVP to KCHD Community Health at 215-5180. If you have additional questions, or need a paper copy of the Resource Guide, contact Sarah Bounce at 215-5187 or sarah.bounce@knoxcounty.org.

4. SKNBC Panel to Explore Economic Impacts of Urban Wilderness

The South Knoxville Neighborhood & Business Coalition (SKNBC) --- a coalition of neighborhood and business organizations south of the river --- is hosting a “Celebration of the Urban Wilderness” panel discussion at Ijams Nature Center, 3209 Island Home Avenue, on Tuesday, April 19, from 6:00 until 8:00 p.m.

Dr. Charles Sims --- a U.T. economics professor and co-author of “Economic Potential of South Knoxville’s Urban Wilderness” --- will present the findings of his research and highlight the direct and indirect impacts on South Knoxville’s economy and beyond.

Panelists will include Carol Evans of Legacy Parks, Matthew Kellogg of Appalachian Mountain Bike Club, Debbie Sharp of TREK South, Molly Gilbert of Lake Forest Neighborhood Association, and First District City Council Member Nick Pavlis. Paul James of Ijams Nature Center will moderate.

5. West Haven Village to Hold Community Yard Sale

The West Haven Village Neighborhood Association is holding a community-wide yard sale on Friday and Saturday, April 22 and 23, starting at 8 a.m., weather permitting.

West Haven Village is located between Western Avenue and Pleasant Ridge Road, and between Sanderson Road and Sisk Road. This is a multi-family yard sale that will be marked throughout the neighborhood by participants with balloons and signs.

Items include furniture, clothing, kitchenware, motorcycle, crafts & art supplies, Coach purses, jewelry, and more! Rain date: April 29 and 30, same times.

6. Timbercrest to Host Neighborhood Yard Sale

The Timbercrest Neighborhood Association will host its first Neighborhood Yard Sale from 9 a.m. until 1 p.m. on Saturday, April 30. The rain date will be May 7, same hours.

A map of the participating homes will be located at the Timber Pass entrance off Lonas Drive. Baked goods will be available for sale at that location, so munch a muffin while you visit the sales. Expect to see children's items, antiques, furniture, and exercise equipment, to name just a few of the items.

For more, contact Jennifer at Jennifer.zubko@gmail.com.

The Timbercrest neighborhood is located north of Lonas Drive on the western end of Lonas. There are two entrances --- Timber Pass and Starmont Trail.

7. City Launches Morningside Park Walking Group

Are you interested in meeting new people, becoming more physically active and engaging in community issues? Look no further than the new walking interest group, the Morningside Movers.

Morningside Movers will meet at 10 a.m. every Monday and Wednesday from April 18 through May 25 in front of the Alex Haley statue in Morningside Park. The purpose of the group is to bring neighbors together for fun and fitness, increase positive energy, enjoy beautiful spring weather while getting fit for summer, and share ideas for park utilization and revitalization.

Morningside Park is located at 1870 Hazen Street. Morningside Movers is a program run by the City of Knoxville's Parks and Recreation Department. For more information about Morningside Movers, call E.V. Davidson Recreation Center at (865) 971-4746 and ask to speak with Traci Faller.

8. Club Dejavu Owners Due in Court Thursday

Criminal Court Judge Steve Sword last week issued a temporary injunction closing Club Dejavu Entertainment and Sports, a South Knoxville nightclub.

Evidence gathered by the Knoxville Police Department demonstrated a pattern of activity that made it possible for the Knox County Attorney General's Office (AG) to seek the closure under a state nuisance law. The action marks the 47th permanent or temporary closure by the AG and KPD under the law.

Club owners Kevin D. Cherry and Kenneth J. Ray, along with Chu Brothers Partnership, owner of the property, were ordered to appear in Sword's Division 1 Criminal Court at 9 a.m. Thursday, April 14, to show cause why a permanent injunction should not be issued.

In the petition, the AG alleged that Club Dejavu "is a business where illegal drug use, alcohol violations, criminal activity, and extremely violent behavior are rampant. Criminal street gangs are openly displaying gang colors and showing gang signs..."
