VENDOR LICENSING

Requirements

State of Tennessee [TCA Sections 67-4-701, et seq] requires vendors to have either:

- Annual license(s) issued by a city and/or county government in the State of Tennessee which allows vendor to sell anywhere in the state temporarily ($20 annual license fee), or
- Transient vendor’s license issued by City of Knoxville ($55 license fee for 14 days).

City of Knoxville [City Code Sections 16-1, et seq] states:

- All occupations and businesses conducted within city limits to be properly licensed and to publicly display the license where business is conducted.

City of Knoxville [City Code sections 16-366, et seq] in relation to outside vending states:

- Pedestrian vending permit for sales conducted on City sidewalks during special events (designated by the City) is required of each individual peddler ($25 permit fee for each person each day). Seller cannot be stationary, but must remain mobile, except during sales transactions.

Anyone conducting sales or offering goods for sale, except tax-exempt organizations that did not purchase goods for sale, must meet the above requirements. A copy of the business license or transient vendor’s license and pedestrian vendor’s permit must be with the seller during the event. A copy of tax-exempt status must be at the site of sales.

An entire event may be licensed and individual vendors will not have to be licensed. If the event is handled this way, each vendor will be required to pay $1.00 per day, which will be remitted to the City by the event organizer or sponsor that holds the license.

Enforcement

The following actions will be taken with violators:

2. Citation to City Court if license(s) are not purchased. Each unheeded warning is a separate offense and will result in separate citations or attachment and confiscation of goods offered for sale.
