Cox Makes Final Plea for Suffrage
Governor James M. Cox of Ohio, Democratic nominee for President, sent the following telegram last night to Governor Roberts:

The House of the Tennessee Legislature will vote today on ratification of the Federal suffrage amendment.

Those voting to oppose ratification were: F. S. Hall, W. W. Bond, W. F. Story, R. P. Turner, Dan Wolfenbarger, J. Martin, L. M. Jackson and W. E. Weldon.

Suffragists Are Delighted.
Suffragists were overjoyed when they learned that most of the committee favored the ratification resolution.

Suffragists Believe Davidson Will Hold
In view of the report that some members of the Davidson County delegation in the lower house of the Legislature had changed their attitude toward ratification of the suffrage resolution, there was exhibited last night a questionnaire, proposed to the members of the Citizens' legislative ticket on July 31st, when the members of that ticket were candidates before the Democratic primary on August 1, 1918.

Fourteen questions were submitted in the questionnaire. The eighth of these was: "Are you in favor of woman suffrage?"

CANTU REVOLT SETTLED, SAYS MEXICAN PRESS

SEN. BRANDEGEE'S HAND SEEN HERE IN 'SUFF' BATTLE

Connecticut Senator, Republican, Fighting Ratification Because Means Defeat.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 16.—"I am not surprised at the story appearing in the papers today, showing the apparent conviction and interest of Senator Brandegee, of Connecticut, in the suffrage fight in Tennessee," said Miss Jessie R. Haver, legislative secretary of the National League of Women Voters, with headquarters in Washington.

"Senator Brandegee has every reason not to want the women to vote in Connecticut in November. Already the Connecticut Woman Suffrage Association, headed by Miss Ludington, has inaugurated a "no vote, no money" pledge which Republican party women are asked to sign and which is meeting with enthusiastic support.

The left wing, resting on the forts of Modlin (Novo Georgievsk) holds the line of the lower Narow and Bug; the center, protected behind by the outer forts of Warsaw, occupies positions situated at distances varying from eighteen to thirty miles from the captor; the right wing commands the valley of the upper Bug.

House of Commons Adjourns Session.
(London, Aug. 16.—The House of Commons adjourned tonight at 11 o'clock.

Replies to Labor.
Premier Lloyd George, replying to a question concerning labor conditions against war on Russia, declared that any attempt to dictate the policy of the government or parliament by industrial action struck at the root of the democratic constitution of the country and would be resisted by all the forces at the government's disposal.

Irish Question.
Paragraphs in the newspapers recently, considered by some to have been implied, had led the public to expect some new declarations of policy toward Ireland by the Premier or Mr. Bonar Law on the lines of dominion rule, but this expectation met with a flat denial.

Although today's sitting had been especially called because of the Polish crisis, it had from this view little interest, owing to the lack of news from Minsk, where the Polish and Bolshevik emissaries are conferring on the question of an armistice and peace.
