

Jackson Avenue Streetscapes
Public Meeting Comments
May 15, 2014

Comment Card

- Underground utilities
- Length of street closing at the intersection of Jackson and Central

Comment Card

- Widening of pedestrian-ways is good
- Parking – keep nights and weekends free
- Underground utilities

Comment Card

- Wider sidewalks
- Underground utilities
- Bike lanes
- No street parking on Jackson
- Closing Jackson/Central to car traffic after 10 pm on Friday/Saturday, subject to residents being able to get to/from resident parking
- Trees and planters
- Lighting that fits the character of the Old City, but brighter for more safety

Comment Card

- Get rid of the Greyhound Station

Comment Card

- Underground utilities
- Decorative lighting – possibly overhead lighting and pedestrian lighting
- Trolley to The Old City – if not possible then a good pedestrian route from trolley stop on Gay (at the Emporium) down Jackson to The Old City – maybe a wrought iron archway over Jackson at Gay Street calling out “The Old City”
