

Henley Bridge Turns Rainbow Colors for 2 Nights

If you're driving through downtown Knoxville tonight, you might notice an array of colors in the lights along the top of the Henley Bridge. To celebrate the historic ruling on marriage equality by the Supreme Court on Friday, the bridge will be lit with the colors of the rainbow tonight and tomorrow night. If you get a good photo of it, send it to us at citywebmaster@knoxvilletn.gov!

Starting Wednesday, July 1, the lights will change to a red, white and blue pattern for Independence Day.
