Published by the City of Knoxville's Office of Neighborhoods to report news important to Knoxville's residential neighborhoods. News & calendar deadline: 5 p.m. Mondays.

1. Montgomery Village Seeks Donations for Trunk-or-Treat Event

The Montgomery Village Residents Association (MVRA) is planning to hold a trunk-or-treat event on Halloween for the 400 children who live in the South Knoxville housing development.

The activity will be held from 6-8 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 31, at the MVRA office at 4600 Joe Lewis Road, Unit 175.

Working with the U.T. College of Social Work, MVRA is also seeking donations from individuals and other neighborhood organizations. If you would like to donate candy or show up at the event with a trunkful of goodies, contact MVRA President Ronnie Thompson at 604-6492 or 583-9221.

2. A Fantabulous Weekend for Downtown Neighborhoods

This is the weekend to revel in downtown neighborhoods.

Start with brats, bier and art at Fourth & Gill's ARToberfest on Saturday afternoon. Then, on Sunday, be sure to make time for both the Tour of Homes in Parkridge and "Open Streets" on North Central Street. See articles below.

3. ARToberfest Offers Art, Musik, Brats, Bier and Fun

Fourth & Gill Neighborhood Organization's ARToberfest --- a celebration of Art, Musik, Brats and Bier --- will be held from 2-9 p.m. this coming Saturday, Oct. 24, on Morgan St. between Third Ave. and Gratz St. near Central United Methodist Church.

Back for its second year, this event features three bands, 60 art vendors, the UT football game on a big screen, a German Bier garden, brats, and other activities. Tickets are $10. Tickets purchased in advance include a free beverage. Children 12 and under get in free.

The three bands and their approximate playing times are Knoxville Polka Kings, 2-4 p.m.; Misty Mountain String Band, 4-6 p.m.; and Uptown Stomp, 6-9 p.m.

This is a fund-raiser for the Fourth & Gill Neighborhood Organization. Of the profits, 40% goes to public art, 40% for neighborhood maintenance and beautification, 10% to ARTreach (a non-profit that provides creative opportunities to youth), and 10% to the neighborhood with the greatest attendance.

This event has a wide range of sponsors and is also supported by a grant from the Neighborhood Small Grants Program administered by the Office of Neighborhoods.

Volunteers are needed. Work a two-hour shift and get a free ticket to the event. To sign up, email at ARToberfestknox@gmail.com or visit <http://artoberfestknox.com/volunteer/>.

Visit <http://artoberfestknox.com/> for more details, including an arts and crafts vendor application form.

4. Take a Sentimental Journey: Historic Parkridge Home Tour

The Parkridge Community Organization this weekend will host a 1945-Era Home Tour with a focus on residents during the Swing era immediately after World War II.

The event will take place from 1-6 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 25. The 11 homes on the tour --- built between the 1890's and 1945 --- are good examples of the ongoing revitalization of the Parkridge neighborhood. In addition, a walking tour of 20 homes not open to the public will be included. The walking tour will focus on the history of the homes and their former occupants in 1945.

Tickets are $10 per person if purchased in advance and $12 on the day of the event. Children under 12 are admitted for free. Parking is available at the Ashley Nicole Park, 620 Winona Street.

Purchase advance tickets at K-Brew, Saw Works Brewery, Three Rivers Market, and www.parkridgecommunity.wordpress.com. Walking is necessary and many houses have steps. For more, email historicparkridge@gmail.com or call 865-951-6614.

5. Play in the Street This Weekend

Bring out the kid in yourself this weekend and play in the street, literally, along a one-mile stretch of North Central Street between the Old City and Happy Holler.

The City of Knoxville --- in collaboration with Bike Walk Knoxville and the Knoxville Regional Bicycle Program --- will close that section of North Central to motorized vehicles from 1-4 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 25, for Knoxville's first Open Streets event.

People of all ages and abilities are invited to walk, scoot, skip, ride bicycles, hula hoop, play croquet, and try out activities like yoga and Zumba and pickle ball --- all in a setting that is traffic-free.

There will be bike rentals, demonstrations of the popular Indian sports Kabbadi and Kho and Kho, frisbee golf, musical chairs, glass blowing, dance demonstrations and performances, cake walks, dogs from rescue organizations, hard-court bike polo, a bike rodeo, Tai Chi demonstrations, Bus Riding 101 (how to put your bike on a city KAT bus), a photo booth, One World Circus, Dragonfly Aerial Arts....well, you get the idea.

All of it is free except for food, which will be provided by local food trucks and restaurants along the route.

Knoxville Mayor Madeline Rogero will be walking and socializing along the route, and at 2:30 p.m. she will participate in a ribbon-cutting ceremony for The Central Collective, 923 North Central, a mixed-use creative space that is now home to Dale's Fried Pies and Shawn Poynter Photography.

For more, visit <http://openstreetsknoxville.com/>. Volunteers are still needed for this event. See the volunteer form.

6. City Seeks Presentations for 2016 Neighborhood Luncheon

The Office of Neighborhoods is seeking presentations --- and ideas for presentations --- to be made at the Neighborhood Awards and Networking Luncheon on March 5, 2016.

Presentations can focus on a creative neighborhood project or event, a program that addresses a neighborhood challenge, or a larger community project that benefits nearby neighborhoods. Proposals will be considered from individuals, neighborhood groups, governmental agencies, civic groups and nonprofits.

A committee of neighborhood leaders will review the proposals and select the winning presentations. Preference will be given to presentations that inspire others to improve their neighborhoods and community.

Each presentation must be accompanied by visually compelling photographs or other artwork organized into a slide show that lasts no more than six minutes. Approximately six presentations will be chosen for viewing in a session preceding the awards luncheon.

Please send a one-page description of your proposed presentation to Debbie Sharp to dsharp@knoxvilletn.gov or Office of Neighborhoods, City of Knoxville, P.O. Box 1631, Knoxville, TN 37901. For questions, email or call Debbie at 215-4382.

Please submit your proposal no later than Monday, Nov. 16.

The luncheon itself will include presentation of the Diana Conn Neighbor of the Year Award, as well as Neighborhood Achievement Awards. Nomination forms for these awards will be made available in the near future.

7. Donations Sought for South Carolina flooding victims

CAC AmeriCorps is seeking donations to assist victims of the recent devastating floods in South Carolina.

The needed donations are non-perishable food, children's items (such as diapers and baby food), medical supplies, paper supplies and cleaning supplies. No clothing or monetary donations can be accepted through this drive.

For a complete list of needed items and other information, visit <http://cacamericorps.org/> or call Rebecca McIver at 215-3456. Donations can be accepted through Monday, Oct. 26.

The drop-off points --- locations where AmeriCorps volunteers are working this year --- are CAC, 2247 Western Avenue; CAC East Neighborhood Center, 4200 Asheville Highway; Vestal Boys and Girls Club, 522 Maryville Pike; City of Knoxville Office of Neighborhoods, 5th Floor, City County Building, 400 Main Street; Ijams Nature Center, 2915 Island Home Avenue;

O'Connor Senior Center, 611 Winona St.; Community Evangelistic Church, 2650 Boyds Bridge Pike (9-12 noon, Oct. 24 only); Keep Knoxville Beautiful; 105A Northview St.; Knox County Stormwater Office, 205 W. Baxter Ave.; and Knox County Parks & Recreation, 2447 Sutherland Ave.

The donations drive is one of many activities taking place this weekend in observance of Make-a-Difference Day, sponsored locally by CAC AmeriCorps.

8. Program Helps SNAP Clients at Two Farmers Markets

Buying local fresh fruits and vegetables, especially local produce, was cost prohibitive for many people on the Tennessee Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) --- until now.

The farmers markets at Market Square and New Harvest Park are partnering with the AARP Foundation to help those on SNAP take advantage of a new Fre$h Savings program. When a SNAP client buys up to $10 worth of SNAP-eligible purchases at these farmers markets, he or she receives up to $10 credit to buy fresh fruits and vegetables.

This program will be running at both farmers markets through the end of the season (end of December) and for three full years after this. The Market Square Farmers Market is open Wednesdays 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. and Saturdays 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. The New Harvest Park Farmers Market is open Thursdays from 3-6 p.m.

SNAP clients should visit the Information booth at either market to receive tokens to be used for purchases throughout the market. For more information, contact David Vandergriff, UT Extension Knox County, at 215-2340.

This program not only helps make nutritional and healthy foods more reasonable for consumers, but also helps promote local farmers and keeps food dollars in the community.
