1. Mechanicsville to Dedicate Entrance Sign

The Mechanicsville Community Association will dedicate a new gateway entrance sign in a ceremony starting at 9:30 a.m. this coming Saturday, April 9.

The sign will be located at 2001 Brandau Street in the green space between the Greater Mount Moriah and Eternal Life Harvest churches, directly across Western Avenue from the Pilot Station. There is plenty of parking in the church parking lots.

Refreshments will be served, and there will be music. City officials have been invited to attend. The sign was erected with the support of the Neighborhood Small Grants Program.

2. Sign up Now for Fourth & Gill Event Planning Workshop

If your neighborhood organization is planning an event, no matter how large or small, you will pick up some useful tips at an event planning workshop this coming Saturday morning.

Members of the Historic Fourth & Gill Neighborhood Organization will explain the nuts and bolts of event planning from 10 a.m. until noon on Saturday, April 9, at the Central United Methodist Church, located at 201 Third Avenue just one block off North Central and Broadway.

Please register for this event no later than noon this coming Thursday, April 7, by contacting Laurie Meschke, preferably at LLMeschke@gmail.com or, if you don't have Internet access, at 865-964-8368.

Topics will include:

-  City relations -- permits, services, and trainings.
-  Logistics – timelines, facilitating process, insurance, etc.
-  Sponsorships – purpose, marketing, levels of sponsorship, commitment/payment, in-kind vs. cash.
-  Art and entertainment – recruitment, marketing, event footprint.
-  Marketing – media outlets, planning, materials, know the audience.
-  Volunteers – planning, recruitment, task assignment, appreciation

These topics will be presented by the planning committee for Fourth & Gill's 2015 ARToberfest --- Gerry Moll, Laurie Meschke, Liz Upchurch, Robert Rogers and Steve Larimer.

3. Edgewood Park Plans "Safety Saturday"

The Edgewood Park Neighborhood Association is kicking off the start of its spring events by holding a "Safety Saturday" from noon until 2 p.m. this coming Saturday in Edgewood Park, located on Edgewood Avenue just one block east of Broadway.

"The purpose of this event is to raise safety awareness throughout our neighborhood [and] hopefully lower accident/injury rates, prevent crimes, and in general make a safer and closer neighborhood," noted Michael Duerr, vice president of the neighborhood organization. "It is a family-orientated event designed to be interesting for children and adults alike."

 Knoxville Fire Department will be on hand with a fire truck and a booth to help promote fire safety.

 Knoxville Police Department will have a display promoting its Neighborhood Watch Program.

 Knox County Sheriff's Office will bring its bomb disposal unit.

 Rural Metro technicians will explain basic household first aid and have an ambulance on hand for viewing.

 The local Disaster Assessment Team will be on hand with a display table to make the neighborhood aware of efforts that are in place in case of widespread emergency.

4. Tornadoes... Active Shooter... Other Emergencies: R U Ready?

While East Tennessee is not "Tornado Alley," we do have our share of violent storms, including tornadoes.

Would you know what to do if one took a slice out of Knoxville?

Do you know the recommended response in an "active shooter" situation or terrorist event? Are you prepared for other natural and manmade disasters? Could you rely on your neighbors for help?

These are the key topics that will be covered at a Citizen Preparedness Workshop to be held from 6 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. Wednesday, April 20, at O'Connor Senior Center, 611 Winona St.

This workshop is sponsored by the Knoxville Police Department (KPD), the Knoxville-Knox County Emergency Management Agency (KEMA), and the Office of Neighborhoods.

 KPD Sergeant Sammy Shaffer will provide detailed insight and advice on how to respond in active shooter situations and to acts of terrorism.

 Colin Ickes of KEMA will discuss community preparedness for and response to natural and manmade disasters.

 Rebecca McIver of the Office of Neighborhoods will outline how your city neighborhood can participate in the Neighborhood Emergency Preparedness Program.

To reserve your seat, please fill out the form on this web page. Those with questions or without Internet access can RSVP by calling Rebecca McIver at 215-3456.

5. Neighborhood Advisory Council Meets Next Wednesday, April 13

The Neighborhood Advisory Council (NAC) will meet starting at 4:30 p.m. Wednesday, April 13, at the Cansler Family YMCA, 616 Jessamine Street.

The city's Engineering Department and the Office of Neighborhoods will present details of a proposed Neighborhood Traffic Safety Program to address speeding in residential neighborhoods. The public is invited to attend NAC meetings.

6. Mayor Appoints Six to Neighborhood Advisory Council

Mayor Madeline Rogero has made four appointments and two reappointments to the Neighborhood Advisory Council (NAC), which provides feedback and advice to the Administration on neighborhood-related issues and concerns.

Molly Gilbert was appointed to replace Terry Caruthers (Colonial Village Neighborhood Assn.) in Seat 1-B. Molly is president of Lake Forest Neighborhood Association, a member of various other nonprofits including the Chapman Highway Garden Club and Junior League; and the prime mover behind the Tennessee Pink Marble Trail.

Fran Nichols replaces Donna Downen (Glenview Homeowners Assn.) in Seat 3-A. Fran is an active member of Moss Creek Villas Homeowners Association with past experience as an officer or member of Fourth & Gill Neighborhood Organization, Fountain City Town Hall, Historic Gibbs Drive Neighborhood Association, and Autumn Walk HOA. She serves as the treasurer of Keep Knoxville Beautiful.

Jenny Wright replaces Lauren Rider (Old North Knoxville) in Seat 4-A. Jenny is president of Fourth & Gill Neighborhood Organization, secretary of Brownlow School Lofts HOA, a member of Junior League of Knoxville, and a member of the Broadway Corridor Task Force.

Ann White, an active member of Dalton Place Homeowners Association, was appointed to Seat 5-A, which was vacant. Ann has also served in various roles with Leadership Knoxville, the Knoxville Police Department's Citizens Police Academy

Alumni Association, Habitat for Humanity, Special Olympics, and the U.T. National Alumni Association (Knox County chapter).

Bill Hutton, president of Oakwood Lincoln Park Neighborhood Association, was reappointed to Seat 5-B, and Amy Midis, president of Forest Heights Homeowners Association, was reappointed to At Large Seat A. Ann White's term expires Dec. 31, 2017. The other terms expire Dec. 31, 2018.

The Office of Neighborhoods salutes the outgoing NAC members and welcomes the new class of this engaged and insightful group of neighborhood leaders.

7. City Council Asks MPC to Consider Historic Overlay Expansion

Knoxville City Council last week approved a resolution asking Metropolitan Planning Commission (MPC) to consider and make a recommendation to City Council and the Historic Zoning Commission regarding the possible expansion of the H-1 historic overlay district in the Parkridge neighborhood.

The Edgewood Park City Historic District now includes both sides of Washington Avenue and Jefferson Avenue from Winona Street to North Olive Street, as well as one additional block of Jefferson between North Olive and Spruce.

The Parkridge Community Organization (PCO) proposes that the overlay district be more than doubled to also include East Glenwood Avenue from Interstate 40 to Spruce Street; Washington Avenue from North Olive to North Chestnut Street; Jefferson Avenue from Spruce to North Cherry; all of Woodbine and East Fifth Avenues from the Old Standard Knitting Mill to North Cherry; and the Old East Knoxville Library Building and 2455 East Magnolia Avenue.

This resolution comes after PCO held a regular neighborhood meeting on Dec. 7, 2015, when the membership voted in favor of requesting the expansion.

All zoning and rezoning requests must originate with MPC making a recommendation to City Council.

8. Reminder: Knoxville SOUP This Thursday

Knoxville SOUP, the micro-funding event, will be held this Thursday, April 7, at Dara's Garden, 2637 Maryville Pike. Doors open at 6:00 p.m.

Pay $5.00 at the door for dinner and a vote. Organizers of four community projects will explain their projects, and then those in attendance will vote for the one they want funded. The money collected at the door goes to the winning project.

For details of the projects to be presented, see www.KnoxvilleSOUP.org. This event --- held on the first Thursday of each calendar quarter --- is sponsored by the South Knoxville Alliance, a business and professional association. For more, call 865-405-0733.

9. Use Saturday Hotline to Report Possible Codes Violations

Call the City of Knoxville's Saturday Inspections Hotline – 865-755-2531 – if you wish to report possible zoning violations, non-permitted construction, parking in front yards and other matters that cannot wait until a Monday call to 311.

Between 8 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. on Saturdays, a City inspector answers calls and visit sites of concern. Please do not use the hotline for matters that can wait until a week day. This is not a general complaint or help line. It is intended solely to report zoning violations and non-permitted construction that is occurring only on the weekends, when inspectors are not normally available to check out a complaint.

10. MPC Begins Southwest County Sector Plan Update

The Knoxville Knox County Metropolitan Planning Commission (MPC) is beginning the process to update the 2005 Southwest County Sector Plan.

The first round of meetings will be held on Thursday, May 5, at Northshore Elementary School, 1889 Thunderhead Road, and on Monday, May 9, at West Valley Middle School, 9118 George Williams Road.

See the plan update page on the MPC website for the Draft Background Report, Adopted 2005 Southwest County Sector Plan, an online survey, and meeting schedule. Residents and business owners in the area are encouraged to take the online survey at <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/XGDPDZJ>.

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Jeff Archer, Principal Planner by email at jeff.archer@knoxmpc.org or by calling him at 215-3821.

The Southwest County sector includes only a small percentage of land inside the city and no neighborhood organizations registered with the Office of Neighborhoods. The sector is located south of Kingston Pike and west of a line that zig-zags down Gallaher View Road, Sanford Drive and Wallace Road from Kingston Pike to Northshore Drive.
