1. CAC Seeks Input on Beaumont/Western Heights Neighborhood

Do you live, visit, play, go to school, or have a vested interest in the Beaumont area or in Western Heights?

If so, Knoxville Knox County Community Action Committee (CAC) is looking for your input to help in the revitalization of the area.

To see the boundaries of the project, learn more about the process, and/or watch videos of previous meetings, visit the website.

To give feedback on what you think is needed in the community, please fill out the survey.

2. Fourth and Gill Hosts Neighborhood Yard Sale

Fourth and Gill is hosting a Neighborhood Yard Sale this Saturday, May 22, from 8 a.m. – 2 p.m.

More than 30 neighbors are participating on Deery St., E Glenwood, Eleanor St., Gratz St., Haynes Place, Luttrell St. and Morgan St. COVID-19 safety guidelines will be in place.

For more details, including the specific addresses participating, check out the Facebook event.

3. Historic Holston Hills Hosts Garden Sale

Historic Holston Hills will host their Garden Sale this Saturday, May 22, from 9 a.m. - 1 p.m. at the Holston Hills Community Park.

They will have perennials, annuals, trees, houseplants, veggies, and various garden items and services for sale. They will have several payment options including credit card, Venmo, cash, and checks.

All the proceeds of this event will go to the maintenance and development of the Holston Hills Community Park.

As the event is outside, staff and visitors are welcome to wear masks and social distance in accordance with their preferences.

For more information, you can contact:

Clairanne Hann: 513-253-5821

Ann Jarrett: 865-566-1515

Cindy Prince: 865-789-1596

6. KUB Requests Community Feedback On Fiber Plan

Knoxville Utilities Board (KUB) recently announced its plan to deploy a fiber network to provide broadband internet services to customers who reside within its electric service territory. In May, KUB's plan for fiber deployment was approved by its electric system regulator, Tennessee Valley Authority (TVA), and by the Tennessee Comptroller of the Treasury.

KUB customers are invited to express their opinions about KUB's plan at a forum being held Wednesday, May 26, at 6 p.m. at the Grand Event Center, 5441 Clinton Hwy. You may register using this form, and registration closes on May 25, at 5 p.m.

All attendees are expected to adhere to the venue's COVID-19 safety policies.

KUB customers who can't attend the meeting can still submit a comment on the plan via email to BroadbandFeedback@kub.org, call 558-2200 and leave a recorded message, or send a letter to: KUB c/o Executive Services, P.O. Box 59017, Knoxville, TN 37950-9017.

For more information, please visit www.kub.org.

7. Active Knox and Knoxville Regional TPO Host Virtual Events

Active Knox and the Knoxville Regional TPO are offering Connecting People and Places by Bike, an online presentation via Zoom on May 25, at 12 and 6 p.m.

Learn how bicycling can unite, activate, and heal our community from:

Featured speaker Anthony Taylor, founder of Slow Roll Twin Cities. Slow Roll Twin Cities empowers people to rediscover, reconnect, and reimagine their communities together, on bicycles.

Panelist Jalonda Thompson is a local leader with Black Girls Do Bike, which is committed to growing and supporting a community of women of color who share a passion for cycling.

Panelist De'Ossie Dingus is the director of Alliance House Community Coalition, an organization committed to addressing racism as a public health crisis in the Knoxville community.

For the 12 noon timeslot, register here.

For the 6 p.m. timeslot, register here.

Registration is limited, so sign up quickly.

Training credits will be available for planning commissioners and individuals with ITE, ASLA and AICP certifications.
